Part II: Bill Provisions and the Estimated Fiscal Impact Relating to Local Government

The fiscal impact of SB 84 SCS on specific local jails will be minimal to perhaps moderate. Compliance with the provisions of the bill relating to the care of pregnant and immediate post-partum inmates, and related reporting will require additional time and effort and the provision of accommodating supplies and facilities.

SB 84 SCS creates a new section of KRS Chapter 196 to establish restrictions on restrictive housing for pregnant inmates or inmates in the immediate postpartum period and defines "immediate postpartum period". It creates a new section of KRS Chapter 196 to establish notice of availability and access to applicable community-based programs and social workers and establishes the parameters for care of the infant for the 72-hour period after birth. SB 84 SCS creates a new section of Chapter 196 to require that an annual restricted housing report be filed with the Legislative Research Commission.

Part III: Differences to Local Government Mandate Statement from Prior Versions

SB 84 SCS deletes Sections 5, 6, and 7 of SB 84 relating to sexual contact between peace officers and arrestees or other persons under law enforcement custody or control.
